1 Introduction

The purpose of this Recruitment Licence Information Sheet is to provide guidance to those applying for a recruitment licence.

2 Legal Framework

The grant or renewal of a recruitment licence is governed by the Private Recruitment Agencies Act 2023("the Act") and the Private Recruitment Agencies Regulations 2025("the Regulations"). Same are accessible on the website of the Ministry on: <https://empment-labour.govmu.org/>.

3 Types of Recruitment Licences

There are three distinct types of recruitment licences, for the three categories of recruitment namely:

□ Recruitment of citizens of Mauritius for employment in Mauritius	□ Recruitment of citizens of Mauritius for employment abroad	□ Recruitment of non-citizens for employment in Mauritius
---	---	--

A private recruitment agency may have more than one licence. Recruitment agencies must strictly comply with the provisions of the Private Recruitment Agencies Regulations 2025. In particular,

- (i) agencies are prohibited from recruiting citizens or non-citizens residing abroad for employment with employers located abroad; and
- (ii) agencies are likewise prohibited from recruiting non-citizens already working or residing in Mauritius for employment with employers located abroad.

4 Application for a Recruitment Licence

- (a) Any company which intends to operate a private recruitment agency shall make an application for a recruitment licence to the Permanent Secretary on the relevant prescribed form available on the website of the Ministry on: <https://empment-labour.govmu.org/> . The application should be sent by post or may be hand delivered at the following address:

The Permanent Secretary
Ministry of Labour and Industrial Relations (Employment Division) 11th Floor, Victoria House, Port Louis.

- (b) A separate application form should be submitted for each type of licence. The application shall be accompanied by a non-refundable fee of 5000 rupees for each category.
- (c) In case an employer directly recruits employees to work for himself in accordance with section 3(1) and (2) of the Act, he should comply with the provisions of the Private Recruitment Agencies Regulations 2025, in as much as the responsibilities of the recruitment agent and employer are concerned.

5 Documents to be submitted with the Application Form

- (a) Applicants are required to submit copies of the following documents:

√ Applicant's National Identity Card (NIC) or valid passport	√ Certificate of Character of the directors, shareholders, or promoters	√ Certificate of Incorporation of the company	√ Business Registration Card
--	--	--	-------------------------------------

√ Proof of residential address of the applicant	√ Building and Land Use Permit (BLUP) or a valid lease agreement for the premises where recruitment activities will be carried out	√ Financial Statements for the last three years  √ A detailed business plan to be provided with projected number of workers to be recruited, target sectors and sourcing countries	√ Technical knowledge and experience in the field of recruitment workers  √ Letter from a lawyer attesting that his/her services will be provided on any legal matter pertaining to the recruitment of workers e.g. contract vetting

(b) Security to be furnished for the recruitment of non-citizens for employment in Mauritius and for citizens of Mauritius seeking employment abroad, either by:

√ An office cheque drawn to the account of the Government of Mauritius	√ Or an insurance policy issued by a company registered under the Insurance Act , acceptable to the Permanent Secretary, and deposited with the Accountant-General	√ Or a bank guarantee issued by a bank licensed under the Banking Act , to be deposited with the Accountant-General

(c) To note that:

- (i) applicants should be conversant with Mauritian labour laws, and with the labour laws of the country of destination when placing Mauritians abroad; and
- (ii) applicants should have the ability and willingness to comply with the conditions of the licence.

6 Inspection

The Permanent Secretary or any officer designated by him may inspect the business premises of the applicant to verify whether it is equipped with communication facilities, in good working condition, including fixed telephone line, fax and internet facilities and other amenities in good working condition including a waiting area and restroom.

The business premises of the applicant should not be located within the residential premises of the applicant.

7 Fees applicable for new/renewal application

Once application is approved, the applicant will be notified in writing and a recruitment licence for a duration of 3 years will be issued, subject to, payment of the applicable licence fee and security deposit made within 30 days.

Licence Type	Application Fee (Rs)	Licence Fee for 1 year (Rs)	Licence Fee for 3 Years (Rs)	Security Deposit (Rs)
